performance of the given person and of the organisational unit in reference to the general performance of the Company and the Group.

- 3) Remuneration paid to the members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board shall take into account the current situation of the Company.

III. Remuneration structure

- 1) The remuneration model for Members of the Management Board covers fixed pay, variable pay and non-cash benefits.
- 2) The remuneration model for Members of the Supervisory Board covers fixed pay and non-cash benefits.
- 3) The components of remuneration for Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board shall be paid in a transparent manner which ensures effective implementation of the Remuneration Policy.
- 4) While determining the rules for remuneration for Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board, the rules for remuneration for all the employees of the Company shall be taken into account, including the benefits granted by the Company to all employees of the Company. Moreover, the situation on the labour market shall be analysed, as well as market remuneration in the companies which act in a similar scale and specific as the Company or have a similar object activity as the Company. In case of determining the remuneration of the Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board the scope of responsibility, potential risks and specific of the area supervised by the particular Member of the Management Board or Members of the Supervisory Board shall be analysed.

- 1) Members of the Management Board shall be paid remuneration under their employment contracts or under appointment relationship.

- 2) Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and removed in accordance with rules described in § 15 of the Statutes:
 - a) Jakub Zabłocki shall have the right to appoint and remove 1 (one) member of the Supervisory Board holding the office of the President of the Supervisory Board, in the form of a written statement appointing or removing the President of the Supervisory Board served on the Company; the said right consisting another manner of appointing a member of the Supervisory Board in the meaning of Article 385 § 2 of the Act dated 15 September 2000 (with amendments) Commercial Companies Code vests in Jakub Zabłocki as long as via his controlled entities in the meaning of the Accountancy Act dated 29 September 1994 (with amendments) jointly with such entities or personally he holds shares in the Company representing at least 33% of the total number of votes at the General Meeting. With reference to right mentioned in the previous sentence, Jakub Zabłocki shall be entitled to remove only that member of the Supervisory Board whom he previously appointed or who was co-opted by the Supervisory Board or appointed by the General Meeting in accordance with § 15 section 6 of the Statutes. If Jakub Zabłocki loses his right due to reduction of his share in the total number of votes at the General Meeting below the threshold of 33% of the total number of votes at the General Meeting, then the General Meeting shall be entitled to remove the member of the Supervisory Board appointed by Jakub Zabłocki;
 - b) the remaining members of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed and removed by the General Meeting.
- 3) The rules for and amount of the remuneration of Members of the Supervisory Board shall be determined by the General Meeting.
- 4) There are three thresholds of remuneration granted to the Members of the Supervisory Board:
 - a) remuneration of the Chair of the Supervisory Board;
 - b) remuneration of Members of the Supervisory Board who simultaneously act as a member of at least one committee of the Supervisory Board; and
 - c) remuneration of other Members of the Supervisory Board who do not hold any office in a committee of the Supervisory Board.

- 1) If the entire remuneration is divided into fixed components and variable components, the fixed components shall constitute a portion of the total remuneration which is high enough to enable flexible policy regarding the variable remuneration components, including reduction or non-payment of such components.
- 2) Subject to point 3) below, the proportion of the variable remuneration components to the fixed remuneration components must not exceed 100% for each Member of the Management Board.
- 3) Subject to consent from the General Meeting, a higher maximum relation of the variable remuneration components to the fixed remuneration components may be applied, but no higher than 200%. The consent referred to in the previous sentence shall be expressed in the form of a resolution adopted by a majority of 2/3 of votes in the presence of persons representing at least half of the share capital, or if quorum is not present, the resolution shall be adopted by a majority of 3/4 of votes.

Fixed components of the remuneration

- 1) Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board, to whom this Remuneration Policy apply, shall be paid fixed remuneration for work reflecting the type of their work and the qualifications necessary in order to perform the same, taking into account:
 - a) the quantity,
 - b) the assessment, and
 - c) the quality of their work.
- 2) The fixed components of remuneration are:
 - a) the base pay, and
 - b) other benefits granted under generally applicable provisions of law.
- 3) The amount of the fixed pay shall be determined for each Member of the Management Board and each Member of the Supervisory Board individually, based on the level of the person's education, knowledge, qualifications and professional experience, the nature of the position to be held by the given person, the scope of duties and scope of responsibilities for the given position, as well as the situation on the local labour market, so that to ensure that the remuneration level does not encourage the given person to assume excessive risk in order to obtain the variable component of remuneration.

Variable components of remuneration

- 1) Members of the Management Board, to whom this Remuneration Policy applies, may be paid variable pay (annual bonus on the achievement of management goals).
- 2) The variable pay for Members of the Management Board depends on the performance of particular Members of the Management Board and the performance of the Company and the Group.
- 3) The Supervisory Board is authorised to determine the amount of the variable pay for each Member of the Management Board.
- 4) In a situation where the variable components of remuneration are paid in instalments, the long-term interest of the Company shall be taken into account.
- 5) While granting or paying out the variable components of remuneration, the following shall be taken into account: the size and the financial results of the Company and the Group, the risk involved in the Company's operations, the internal organisation, as well as the scope and level of complexity of the Company's and the Group's business.

Neither the Company, its shareholders, nor any of their advisors are responsible for translation errors, if any, or for any discrepancies between the original report and this translation into English. If there are any discrepancies between the English translation and the Polish version, the latter shall prevail.

- 6) The financial results of the Company and the Group adopted in order to determine the variable components of the remuneration should take into account the level of the risk assumed and the cost of capital and restriction of liquidity.
- 7) Members of the Management Board shall be informed about the goals and assessment rules by the end of the first quarter for which the variable components of remuneration are to be paid.
- 8) The performance assessment shall be based on the data for at least last three financial years, and for persons with less than three years of services – the data from the date of commencement of employment, to ensure that the actual payment of the Company and the Group performance-related components of remuneration covers a period which takes into account the business cycle and risk involved in the Company's and the Group's business.
- 9) While assessing the individual performance, both financial and non-financial criteria shall be taken into account.
- 10) The financial criteria referred to in point 9) above may include, but are not limited to:
 - a) implementation the organisational unit's budget,
 - b) performance of tasks which bring additional unplanned revenues or savings, taking into account the risk involved in the performance of such tasks,
 - c) contributing to losses which objectively could have been prevented – as a negative assessment factor.
- 11) The non-financial criteria referred to in point 9) above may include, but are not limited to:
 - a) participation in activities which affect the Company's reputation – as a positive or a negative assessment factor,
 - b) a failure to meet the expectations regarding competences – as a negative assessment factor,
 - c) timely performance of assigned tasks, taking into account the objective conditions in which they are performed,
 - d) attitude to risk,
 - e) implementation of the strategy in the supervised areas, and
 - f) active participation or initiative in the area of business social activities.
- 12) The guaranteed variable components of remuneration, which are not subject to relevant provisions regarding variable components of remuneration, are of exceptional nature, may be granted only at the moment of entering into the employment relationship and are limited to the first year of employment only.
- 13) The persons who are subject to the Remuneration Policy are obliged not to use personal hedging strategies or insurance regarding remuneration and liability in order to challenge the consequences of risk in the remuneration system which applies to them.

- 1) The amount of the variable components of remuneration granted must not restrict the Company's ability to increase its capital base.

Neither the Company, its shareholders, nor any of their advisors are responsible for translation errors, if any, or for any discrepancies between the original report and this translation into English. If there are any discrepancies between the English translation and the Polish version, the latter shall prevail.

- 2) The amount of the variable components of remuneration may be reduced, and the payment thereof may be suspended, if the Company shows permanent balance sheet loss.
- 3) Remuneration for earlier termination of the contract should reflect the work volume, productivity and quality over at least the last three years of holding the given office with the Company, and if the person has held the office for a period shorter than three years – for the period from the moment the person took over the office. The rules regarding such payments should be formulated in a manner which prevents remunerating poor performance, taking into account the basis and criteria described above.
- 4) At least 40% of the variable components of remuneration shall depend on the performance of the given person and shall take into account the risk of operations of the Company.
- 5) At least 50% of the variable components of remuneration shall be granted in the form of Financial Instruments. This provision shall not apply to the variable components of remuneration if their total value in the given year does not exceed 50% of the fixed pay.
- 6) At least 40% of the variable component of remuneration paid in the form of a Financial Instruments as referred to in point 5) shall be settled and paid within a period of from three to five years, whereas such a period shall be determined taking into account the business cycle, the nature of and risk involved in the business and the obligations of the given persons. If the total amount of the remuneration of the given person in the previous financial year exceeded the Polish zloty equivalent of 1,000,000 euro determined at the average exchange rate published by the National Bank of Poland applicable on the last day of the previous year, the above shall apply to 60% of the variable components of remuneration.
- 7) The rights under the Financial Instruments referred to in points 5) and (6) above must not be transferred to a third party or encumbered in favour of a third party. The rights under the Financial Instruments shall be exercised by demanding the Company to fulfil payment obligation of a specified value.
- 8) The demand referred to in point 7) may be filed no more than once in a given calendar year.
- 9) The demand referred to in point 7) above must not be filed before the General Meeting approves the financial statements of the Company for the financial year preceding the year in which the demand is filed. Simultaneously, the Member of the Management Board must not file the demand in a given year if the approved financial statements of the Company for the immediately preceding financial year show loss at the consolidated level. In the event referred to in the preceding sentence, it is not possible to file the demand until the value of the loss suffered by the Company plus any consecutive losses is not offset with the value of consecutive profits of the Company.

Non-cash benefits

Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board to whom this Remuneration Policy applies, receive or may receive remuneration in the form of non-cash benefits which are available to other employees of the Company, including inter alia:

- (a) the possibility of using the Company's equipment, including Company car, computer, telephone,
- (b) access to trade literature and press,
- (c) additional fringe benefits, including a multisport card, private healthcare, insurances and
- (d) training.

IV. Pension scheme and early retirement scheme

§14

- 1) The Management Board takes care that the policy regarding retirement benefits is in compliance with the business strategy, objectives and values of the Company and that it is aimed at ensuring special attention to the Company's interest in a long-term perspective.
- 2) The Company does not operate any early retirement schemes or additional pension schemes.
- 3) A Member of the Management Board who is a party to a terminated contract for provision of work and has reached the retirement age, shall be obliged not to dispose of the Financial Instruments for a period of five years from the date of termination of the contract under which they provided work.

V. Avoidance of conflict of interest

- 1) This Remuneration Policy is aimed at guaranteeing identification and mitigation of any possible conflict of interest relating to remuneration for Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board.
- 2) The decision-making process with regard to granting remuneration is transparent and multi-level. The performance assessment rules which are functioning in the Company are clear and transparent. Competences related to the adoption, application and control of the realization of the rules specified in the Remuneration Policy are divided into particular bodies of the Company.
- 3) In case when any Member of the Management Board or Member of the Supervisory Board becomes aware of the occurrence or possible occurrence of a conflict of interest related to the remuneration, relevant information on the occurrence of the conflict should be provided to the Company. In the event of the situation referred to in the previous sentence, the Supervisory Board is obliged to take all actions to eliminate or prevent the identified conflict of interest.

VI. Remuneration reports

- 1) Each year, the Supervisory Board shall prepare the Remuneration Report which shall set out the comprehensive review of remuneration, including all the benefits in whatever form, received by particular Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board or due to particular Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board in the previous financial year, in accordance with this Remuneration Policy.
- 2) Members of the Supervisory Board shall be liable for the information contained in the Remuneration Report.
- 3) The Remuneration Report shall specify in particular the following:
